

Cahuilla Lodge #127

2006 Fall Fellowship

October 6-8, 2006
Camp Emerson
in Idyllwild, CA

- Sports
- Competitions
- Training Sessions
- Fellowship & Fun

Come be a part of the biggest OA event in Cahuilla Lodge!

Theme:

There is nothing as eloquent as a rattlesnake's tail.
Navajo proverb

Cost: $25 per person

Which Chapters will win any of the big 3 awards?

How would you like to compete in fun events as a group? At the Fall Fellowship, we give out three awards, the Negami (to the best Chapter at the Fall Fellowship), the Chapter Excellence (to the best Chapter over the past year), and the Spirit (to the most spirited Chapter at the Fall Fellowship).

Recognition of Service - Vigil Honor

On Friday Night, our Lodge will recognize Scouts and Scouters by bestowing upon them the Vigil Honor. Some of your friends who are wearing a Brotherhood sash on Friday may have a new sash on their shoulder later in the weekend!

Finding the Leaders of Tomorrow

On Saturday afternoon, all of the youth will have the honor of electing their 2007 Cahuilla Lodge Officers, including our next Lodge Chief!

Native American Affairs, Sports and Spirit

If you enjoy the arts of Indian Affairs, you can participate in our ceremony competitions, make loom style beadwork, and participate in dancing. If you're athletic, you can play soccer, perhaps some volleyball, along with spirit, yelling, yelling, yelling for your Chapter!

The Saturday evening campfire will be great!

We will have a Lodge-wide talent show. Each Chapter is asked to provide an individual or team to showcase your Chapter's most outlandish talent.
