

Venturing Scuba Adventure
May 6-8, 2011
Emerald Bay Scout Camp

DEADLINE to sign up April 15, 2011

Cost will vary, depending on what your adventure details:

$200.00 for non scuba

$400.00 for scuba certification (includes lessons, study material, & certification)

There will be a rental gear & air fill fees in addition to certified divers not taking a class.

These prices includes the boat ride over and back, food, lodging, and snorkel gear. If you are scuba diving student, your price also includes the air fills and rental gear.

To reserve your spot, please send a check payable to Crew 377 by 4/15/11 and sent to address below.

For those doing basic water scuba certification or advanced scuba certification, your deadline is March 21st. Classes will be starting towards the end of March and will run with 3 class room and 3 pool evening sessions. For more information about getting your certification, please contact Mal Maloney at 760-219-3114 or mal@divetri.com. Mal will help direct you on what type of mask, fin, snorkel, booties, gloves, hood, and flashlight you will need to purchase prior to this trip. The cost for this can be between $100 to $200.

We will be providing you more information about where and when we will be departing from on May 6th and the return time on May 8th. Pier parking can range about $15.00 a day.
